LEGION OF HONOR INVESTITURE

Before the Legion of Honor degree is conferred, upon either an active or honorary designate, it is mandatory that the Executive Officer, or one appointed by him, give the "Secret Vow" to the designate in private. No one is permitted to be present when this vow is given other Legionnaires. The Executive Officer cannot deputize anyone other than a regularly constituted Legionnaire to confer this degree or give the "Secret Vow."

The Executive Officer, upon receiving an appointment to DeMolay International, and assuming his duties and before he ever gives the "Secret Vow" of the Legion of Honor, should sign the Vow Book upon the pages set aside for this purpose.

This open investiture of a member of the Legion of Honor must be given exactly as stated without any deletions or additions, except that, if the only designate is for the Honorary Legion of Honor, the Executive Officer may authorize appropriate deletions. The service as written has taken into account the opportunities for splendid musical effects and choral accompaniment.

The entire ritual must be delivered from memory. If not presided over by the Executive Officer for the jurisdiction, only such Officers as he selects shall be used in the conferring of this degree. If Legionnaires are not available, DeMolays may be used as Preceptors. The Seven Preceptors each carry a lighted taper or candle.

Required Parts: Commander in the East: C.E., Commander in the West: C.W., Commander in the South: C.S., Grand Marshal: G.Mar., Grand Chaplain: G.Ch., Herald: Her., Seven Preceptors: 1P-7P.

All Officers take regular stations. Her. after making announcement sits in S.D. station.

Required Paraphernalia: Seven candlesticks with unlighted candles arranged as on Diagram One; gavel on C.E.'s pedestal; National flag in standard; Holy Bible open on Altar with unsheathed sword across it with hilt toward Southwest corner, point toward Northeast corner; school books on Northeast corner of Altar; patents; cordons and medallions on C.E.'s pedestal; flowers:

- 3P. White roses*
- 4P. Jasmine or other yellow flowers*
- 5P. Any blue flowers other than violets*
- 6P. White lilies*
- 7P. Red roses*

A sample ring must be on hand in the event one or more designates receiving the degree elects not to purchase the ring; kneeling pads.

Optional Paraphernalia: The Chapter banner in a standard placed as indicated on Diagram One; Altar cloth; pedestal covers; baton for Grand Marshal; pedestal on the right of each Preceptor station, on which each Preceptor places the appropriate flowers and the candle he carries in the procession.

Procession forms single file as follows: Her., G.Mar., C.E., C.S., C.W., G.Ch. 1P., 2P., 3P., 4P., 5P., 6 P., 7P. Her. moves C E V U, ascends dais, faces West.

Fanfare of trumpets.

Her. Friends in the North, East, South and West, DeMolay International calls you from refreshment to labor. A Grand Preceptory of the Legion of Honor is now convened, dedicated to the glory of God. You will take due notice thereof and govern yourself accordingly.

Procession led by G.Mar. moves A C E V U. C.E. drops off at his station first, then as procession proceeds T C E V, the C.S. and C.W. drop off, then on second circuit the G.Ch. and 1P-7P. drop off; G.Mar. moves V Z X, faces West.

C.E. * (rap)

All except C.E. sit down.

C.E. Brother Grand Marshal, you will present those about to receive the Legion of Honor of the Order of DeMolay.

G.Mar. moves X Z T, then to place where designates are seated and conducts them to point U, facing East.

G.Mar Brother Commander in the East, I have the honor and great pleasure to present to you _____ (speaks name of each designate) who have been officially designated by DeMolay International to be received and elevated to the rank, honor, insignia and degree of the Legion of Honor of the Order of DeMolay.

Suggested music cue:

C.E. We are met on this occasion for a purpose typical of the Order of DeMolay and yet one unique in its activities. It is the public investiture and recognition with which DeMolay International honors its illustrious ones, not only for outstanding leadership in some field of endeavor, but also for service to God, to country and to humanity.

This citation is not necessarily a reward for DeMolay labor. Your zeal and interest in the welfare of the Order of DeMolay is an accepted fact. Your designation to be exalted to the highest honor within the gift of DeMolay International comes as a recognition of the leadership you are manifesting in some worthwhile endeavor though it may be in an obscure field of service. We present each one of you to the world as an exemplar and an exponent of the Order of DeMolay.

Tonight the door of service opens wide to you. Your ears are attuned to a high sense of duty and honor, yet I admonish you to reflect well upon the added responsibility that now comes to you - that you may never fail as a citizen, as a leader, and as a human being. The honor which we are about to confer is one to which all may aspire but which only few can attain. Indeed the finger falls upon only the chosen few. At this moment those who have been created members of the DeMolay Legion of Honor are counted only in the tens of thousands from a worldwide membership that runs into the millions.

You not only become a part of a distinguished body determined to perpetuate the ideals of the Order of DeMolay, but you are bound together by the most sacred of vows to lead the great army of DeMolay as it marches onward to a realization of its teachings-teachings which mean so much to the young manhood of this and every other nation.

The very name "Legion" means not so much numbers as selection-not so much quantity as quality. The immortal Tenth Legion will live forever in history, yet it never fought so bravely as when under the eye of Caesar, who knew each man by name. But the Legion of Honor of the Order of DeMolay will fight under the eyes of the nation and of the world, against all the agencies hostile to their country's welfare and in behalf of everything that makes a nation strong and great.

I congratulate you heartily on the distinction that has come to you, most heartily of all because the Order of DeMolay inspires such service as that upon which this honor is based. By the authority and power in me vested, assisted by my colleagues, I am now about to confer upon you the highest decoration within the gift of DeMolay International. Before doing so, however, let us reverently ask the blessing of Almighty God upon this investiture.

* * * (3 raps)

All stand.

Brother Grand Chaplain, you will lead us in our devotions.

All lights except the candles and Altar spot are dimmed.

G. Mar. directs designates to face West, toward Altar. G.Ch. unescorted goes to Altar, moving X Z I J. G.Ch. halts at point J, faces East and takes one step toward Altar. As G.Ch. leaves station all DeMolays and Legionnaires in East and C.W. and C.S. descend to floor level.

C.E. Legionnaires and DeMolays will kneel on left knee. All others will remain standing.

All DeMolays and Legionnaires kneel in unison as G.Ch. kneels.

G.Ch. Almighty God, we humbly approach Thy throne and invoke Thy blessing upon these who are dedicated to doing Thy holy will. We pray Thy special blessing upon these leaders now about to be honored in Thy sight-in the eyes of their fellows and the world-for their devotion to the great cause represented by this Order. They approach Thee in no spirit of vainglory or pride, but with a humility that comes from a new sense of responsibility with which these honors invest them. We thank Thee, our Heavenly Father, for Thy divine favor in the past and wilt Thou be graciously pleased to reconsecrate these whom we honor here. May they become more knightly for Thee and for their beloved country-- more chivalrous for their fellowmen--more valiant for DeMolay in serving Thee by serving Thy humanity. Amen.

ALL Amen.

G.Ch. and all DeMolays and Legionnaires rise. G.Ch. takes one step backward away from Altar, faces North, moves J K V Z X, faces West. As G.Ch. leaves Altar all DeMolays and Legionnaires who were in East and C.W. and C.S. return to daises. Lights raised to full. G. Mar. directs designates to face East.

C.E. * (rap)

All except C.E., G.Mar and designates sit down.

As Legionnaires-elect, you have heretofore taken a vow, one so secret that it is known only to those who have received it, not because it contains anything that should not be known to all, for each one of you will reveal it to the world at large by your own actions and the life you live - but that it may ever be a solemn reminder to you to be true to the ideals of DeMolay and valiant in its service throughout your life. In the presence of these witnesses you will therefore be required to make a public declaration. Are you ready to make this declaration?

Des. I am.

C.E. You must understand that from now on there is no avenue of retirement or resignation possible. You will now be conducted to our Holy Altar.

A diagonal is placed at suggested points for pausing, but C.E. should understand that he may phrase as he chooses. If an identification card is not given to the designates, the phrase "identification card and" should be omitted in the Obligation.

In the presence of Almighty God / and these witnesses here assembled, / do solemnly promise, covenant and vow / that I will do all in my power to strengthen the Order of DeMolay / and to prove myself worthy / of the honor I shall here receive / on bended knee and with deep humility.

I furthermore promise, covenant, and vow, / that I will, to the utmost of my ability, / carry the teachings of the Order of DeMolay / into my daily life; / to live in secret and before the world, / in accordance with its precepts.

I furthermore promise, covenant, and vow, / that I will never willingly do anything / to forfeit the good opinion / of all right-thinking men.

I furthermore promise, covenant, and vow, / that I will always heed the call of service / in any field of endeavor, / that I will never shirk / the responsibilities of citizenship, / and will, to the best of my ability, / aid in the enforcement / of law and order.

I furthermore and most solemnly / promise, covenant, and vow / that hereafter on March eighteenth / of each year / I will, as a memorial to the martyrdom of Jacques DeMolay, / have communion with a fellow member of the Legion of Honor / wherever I may be, / and should this be impossible, / will break bread with a member of the Order of DeMolay / or a young man in his teens.

I furthermore promise, covenant, and vow, / that I will never have communion with, / nor recognize as a member of, / the Legion of Honor, / anyone who does not possess / the (identification card and) credentials / of DeMolay International.

I furthermore promise, covenant, and vow, / that I will never take the name of God in vain.

So help me God!

G.Mar. conducts designates, moving J K V T L, faces South.

G.Mar Brother Commander in the South, I present these designates now about to be invested with the Legion of Honor.

C.S. For the purpose of this ceremony, I occupy the station symbolic of the years of manhood. As the sun at its zenith represents the day half done, the task incompleting, this station symbolizes the attainment of noontime years. I congratulate you most heartily upon the distinguished honor that has been accorded you. Its value will not consist of the intrinsic worth of the insignia which will be given you, but in the fact that you are hereby rededicated and reconsecrated through all the years of your lives to unfaltering championship of your Order, whose interests are bound up with those of your community and your nation. I charge you in all solemnity to prove your further merit by regulating your future conduct by the teachings of the Order upon which you have reflected credit and which, through its highest governing body, is glad to honor you. You will now be conducted to the Commander in the West.

Suggested music cue:

G. Mar. conducts designates, moving L C D, faces West.

G.Mar Brother Commander in the West, I present these designates now about to be invested with the Legion of Honor.

C.W. For the purpose of this ceremony, I occupy the station in the West, symbolic of the day about to close and the human life that nears its end. But above all it represents the sun that shall never set and the glorious promise of everlasting happiness in the world to come. At this station, symbolic of the end of the journey, I can, with all propriety, congratulate you on this auspicious occasion, and express the hope that--when for you in turn the sunshine of life shall turn to shadows--they will close about you like a benediction--with the promise of eternal rewards and everlasting honors. You will now be conducted to the East.

Suggested music cue:

G.Mar. conducts designates moving D E S R, faces East. Places kneeling pads for designates.

C.E. It is now my pleasant duty and honor to present to each of you these tangible emblems of the decoration accorded Legionnaires of the Order of DeMolay. They are the Patent of Membership, the Knightly Ring, the Cordon of a Valiant Knight of the Legion of Honor, and the Medallion of Chivalry.

This Patent is a document which you may well place beside the intimate treasures of your life and cherish as a priceless possession. By this Patent, DeMolay International has become your endorser--has issued its certificate of your good character. To the world it is a promise which you must redeem at full face value and without compromise or devaluation. To yourself it is a standing challenge to perform nobly in every contest you may enter. Brother Grand Marshal, you will present the Patents.

Done.

The ring is a fitting symbol of all the pledges you have made, or may make in the future, to be a citizen of whom your Order and the nation may have cause to be proud. In all ages the ring has been a gauge of fidelity. It is as endless as the wisdom, power and mercy of God. It is made of gold, the immemorial symbol of worth. May it inspire you to a new devotion to God, to your country, to the cause of truth and righteousness, a devotion which will be as endless as this circlet and as priceless as the gold of which it is composed.

If all designates are receiving a ring, omit the word "symbolically" and place ring on finger at the conclusion of the part. If one or more designates do not select the ring, the word "symbolically" should be used and the sample ring should be displayed during the speech.

C.E. I (symbolically) place this ring upon your little finger and enjoin you ever to consider it a constant reminder of your vow to be faithful to the trust reposed in you.

The Cordon is the insignia of membership in an Order which has taken as its great exemplar one of the world's knightliest heroes, Jacques DeMolay, whose memory all DeMolays revere. As I place it about your neck may it robe you with knightliness, clothe you with dignity and honor and ever remind you of that humility which is the very essence of knighthood.

The medallion reveals the valor that has come down through the ages. The knights of old wore some similar heraldic device, containing the portrait of a loved one, their civil lord or some other appropriate figure attesting their knightly state. May it ever be before you as a reminder of the cause to which you have pledged your knightly honor.

Suggested music cue:

C.E. places cordons and medallions on each designate after conclusion of the speech.

G.Mar without direction, moves R Q I J, faces East, removes sword from Altar, then moves J K V U and hands it to C.E.

C.E. In the name of DeMolay International, and by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, and with this sword, an emblem of power which should be wielded in defense of right and only against wrong, injustice and oppression, I dedicate you in the eyes of God, these witnesses and the world, to your country's highest good, to the defense of its honor, to the performance of all the duties of devoted and patriotic citizenship which alone make a nation great. I dedicate you anew to the championship of the public schools and to honorable warfare against all who would assail them or take the smallest stone from this citadel of our nation's liberties, and with this sword I shall now dub, create, constitute and consecrate each of you a Legionnaire of the Legion of Honor of the Order of DeMolay. You will kneel on both knees.

C.E. moves to point U then to each designate in turn and taps him lightly on the right shoulder and says:

C.E. For God

C.E. For country

...on the crown of the head...

C.E. For DeMolay. Arise Legionnaire.

Takes sword by blade in right hand, places sword across left arm, turning the left side to Legionnaire, who places his right hand on hilt and rises. G. Mar. directs Legionnaires to face Altar.

- C.E. May God bless all that has been said and done here; may these just invested with this honor press forward as a valiant phalanx, a veritable Legion of Honor, leading DeMolay's serried ranks to new victories for the prosperity, safety and honor of our beloved country, and to the glory of the Infinite and Almighty God. Amen.
